

THE QUAKER BULLETIN

WELCOME, AVISI!

If you haven't already heard, Christina from DBC is getting MARRIED July 8, 2011, and will be moving to Kansas City, Missouri. She has been an invaluable asset to the Quaker Townhomes, and she will be very greatly missed! Thanks to Christina for 6 years of dedication to DBC and the Quaker Townhomes! We wish Christina the best as she enters a new chapter in her life.

As Christina makes her exit from DBC, Avis makes her entrance! She comes with very high recommendations, and it is our greatest pleasure to welcome her as the newest employee at DBC. Beginning mid-June, Avis will be in the office from 8-5 daily. Please feel free to stop by the office to say hello and welcome her to our community!

We would like to thank you in advance, Residents, for your cooperation as we make this transition. We appreciate you!

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!!

Different Days for Different Dads

North America is not the only place where Father's Day is celebrated.

In traditionally Catholic countries such as Spain and Portugal, Father's Day is observed on March 19, the Feast of St. Joseph.

Taiwanese celebrate Father's Day on August 8, the eighth day of the eighth month, because the Mandarin Chinese word for eight sounds like the word for "Papa."

In Thailand, Father's Day occurs on the king's birthday, which for current King Bhumibol Adulyadej is December 5.

In 1972, Father's Day was made a permanent national holiday in the US when President Richard Nixon signed into law the 3rd Sunday in June as Father's Day.

Life Lessons

You may have thought I didn't see,
Or that I hadn't heard,
Life lessons that you taught to me,
But I got every word.

Perhaps you thought I missed it all,
And that we'd grow apart,
But Dad, I picked up everything,
It's written on my heart.

Without you, Dad, I wouldn't be
The person I am today;
You built a strong foundation
No one can take away.

I've grown up with your values,
And I'm very glad I did,
So here's to you, dear father,
From your forever grateful kid,
-James Packer
